

FCLA-CSUL
PSPC Information Literacy Subcommittee: Re-organizational Meeting

December 12, 2007, 9 a.m.

Notes for the “Meet-Me” Conference Call Originating from Florida State University

Attending: Nancy Allen – USF (Sarasota), Stephanie Brenenson – FIU, Jacqueline Druash – FSU, Alyse Ergood – FAU, Arianne Hartsell – FSU, Elita Kalma – FAU, Catherine Lavallo-Welch – USF (Lakeland), Renee Montgomery – UCF, Kristy Padron – UWF, Drew Smith – USF, Jim Alderman – UNF, Carol Maksian – FCGU.

Introductions

See “Attending”

Discussion of survey results

Jacque led a discussion on the survey results.

Discussion of potential projects

1. Assessment (one-shot, information literacy programs)
2. Increasing faculty awareness and buy-in
3. Avoiding burn-out
4. Use of technology in instruction
5. Helping distance learners

Everyone agreed to e-mail Arianne Hartsell the topics they were interested in presenting on. Those leading could either present on research they find or talk about what they are doing at their institution. Then they could lead us in a discussion of the issues.

Drew Smith and Jim Alderman have agreed to tackle assessment on February 14th at 2:00.

Alyse Ergood agreed to find out about deadlines for upcoming conferences in Florida (i.e. FLA, ACRL in Florida), so we can decide if we want to present at any upcoming conferences.

Discussion of next meeting date and time

February 14 at 2:00 p.m.

Adjournment

The call was terminated at 9:45 a.m